FlexPost®

Market-Leading Manufacturer of Flexible Sign Posts and Bollards

FLEX POST®

FlexPost Inc. offers the ideal solution for curbside pickup signposts, which has proven to be essential in transforming retailers' parking lots into highly influential path-to-purchase touchpoints. The FlexPost-XL line of heavy-duty flexible signposts and bollards are quick to install, offer significant cost savings, and are built tough - to withstand the rigors of busy lots.

In addition, bollards can be customized to match virtually any color. Signs can also be custom-designed to include logos and other corporate branding elements. Click the image on the right to test drive the FlexPost product configurator on our website.
